W. H. OVERBEY, of Henderson, wants to be Consul General at Melbourne, Australia.

Ex-United States Marshal D. J. Burchett, of Louisa, Ky., is an applicant for the consulship at Rio Janerio, Brazil.

THE tariff debate began in the Senate yesterday.

Now let's have a hair-pulling and scratching match between Mrs. Fitzsimmons and Mrs. Corbett and have the whole business over.

REPRESENTATIVE BETTY Saturday re-introduced forty-seven bills, mostly pension measures that failed to get through the last Congress.

JUNE 20 has been decided upon as the date for the Jubilee Thanksgiving day for the celebration of the sixtieth year of the reign of Queen Victoria.

At Washington Friday Representative Evans introduced a bill appropriating $500,000 for a monument to Abraham Lincoln, to be erected in Washington.

GOV. SADLER, of Nevada, assures the public that he saw nothing brutal in the prize fight between Corbett and Fitzsimmons, and that he thinks it will help the State.

Secretary Gage says those revenue officials now on duty, and who did not pass the civil service examination previous to their appointment, will be required to pass the examination if they desire to continue holding office.

IMPORTERS are getting ready for the Dingley Bill by importing large quantities of goods. It is said that it will be no surprise if the increase in receipts shall be sufficient to wipe out the present deficiency by the close of the fiscal year, June 30.

Hon. Husky Duds wants a Postoffice in Tennessee; Hon. Ki Guder, of North Carolina, wants a South American mission, and Hon. Squinch Card, of Kentucky, wants anything he can get. The new Administration is starting out all right.—[Exchange.]

THE penitentiaries of Kentucky have furnished perpetual scandals from a time back to which no living citizen remembers. It is a part of the duty of every Legislature to investigate them, and the special session has already started to work in this direction. It is said that the scandal furnished by the Republican administration of these institutions will be fully as interesting as usual.—[Louisville Times.]

THERE is no better gauge of the condition of business than the railroads. During 1896 the total product of steel rails in this country was but a little over 1,000,000,000 tons, and yet since Jan. 1, of this year, the mills have received orders for rails amounting to nearly 400,000 tons more than the whole output of last year. The demand for steel rails never increases except when times are good or improving.—[Courier-Journal.]

Frankfort Topics.

Dr. Hunter said to a Louisville Post reporter at Frankfort yesterday: "I will be elected to-morrow certainly; there is no chance of the combination going through. You may say that I am confident of winning."

It was said yesterday that Gov. Bradley would get twelve Republican votes and that fifty-nine Democrats and two Populists would also vote for him. This would prevent the election of Hunter.

Frankfort was full of Republicans of high and low degree last night but there was little excitement.

Jack Chinn has been at the Capital for several days, but is reported to be as docile as a lamb.

Representative W. H. Morgan introduced a bill to punish persons for interrupting any public speaker by offensive language or "by throwing eggs or missiles of any kind at him." The penalty is to be a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $1,000 or imprisonment in the county jail from two to twelve months, or both fine and imprisonment.

Maj. A. T. Wood has reached Frankfort from Washington and gives out a warm interview in which he denounces the statement that Hunter will control the Federal patronage in Kentucky as "an infernal lie." He thinks the Senatorial drift is toward Bradley. Ex-Senator Ed. Parker in an interview also expresses the opinion that Bradley will certainly be elected Senator.—[Courier-Journal.]

A BOSTON woman says that "If women would eat more onions they would have fewer calls from the doctor." And fewer from any one else.

About Governor Bradley.

A DISPATCH Sunday from Frankfort says: "Gov. Bradley to-day told one of his friends that it was his present intention to resign his office as soon as the extra session of the Legislature adjourned. Two days ago while in conversation with two or three of his closest political friends the Governor made a similar statement. He said that unless future events wrought a change in his mind there would be an election for Governor in November, not as the result of his election to the United States Senate, but of a determination to give up the office which he holds at present. He said that he would have done so before now but for the urgent appeals of some of his friends."

STOCK AND TURF NEWS.

Sales and Transfers of Stock, Crop, Etc.—Turf Notes.

June Stone sold ten hhds. of tobacco Friday at Louisville for an average price of $3.05.

E. T. Lewis, claiming to be a Methodist preacher, of Munfordville, was held over at Bowling Green on the charge of attempting to pass forged checks.

Thompson Tarr, great three-year-old colt, F. F. V., is doing nicely at Memphis. His first start will likely be in the Latonia Derby. He is not entered in the Kentucky Derby.

Springbok, the famous thoroughbred stallion, died Friday at the Edgewater farm, near Cynthiana. He was the sire of Huntress, Goano, Clipetta, Eberlee, Nimrod, etc., and was a successful racer. He won 19 out of 26 starts.

Experienced farmers tell THE NEWS that wheat in Bourbon has improved wonderfully during the past fortnight and that the prospect for a new crop is better than it has been for several years. The acreage will be larger than last year.

Two car loads of young brood mares, trotters and runners, bought up in Kentucky by Ed A. Tipton and other agents for Marcus Daly during the past three months, left Lexington Sunday night in charge of Joe Rea, the well-known driver and trainer, for the Cooper King's Bitter Root Ranch in Montana.

The Louisville Post thus sizes up Dr. Catlett, Turney Bros.' entry in the Kentucky Derby: "Interest in the chances of the various candidates for the Kentucky Derby and other early season events is great. Ornament, Dr. Catlett and Carnero are most generally liked here. In the early winter local talent was almost entirely in favor of Ornament as the winner, but the people here are gradually coming down to the idea that Dr. Catlett will land the big Kentucky events. Carnero nor Ornament has any backing as Catlett, more commissions having been placed on Catlett by local turfmen than any other entry."

You and we may differ as to money standards and out of our very differences good may come. But we won't differ as to the merits of one standard emulsion of cod liver oil.

SCOTT'S EMULSION has won and held its way for nearly 25 years in the world of medicine until to-day it is almost as much the standard in all cases of lung trouble, and every condition of wasting whether in child or adult as quinine is in malarial fevers.

Differ on the money question if you will, but when it comes to a question of health, perhaps of life and death, get the standard.

A Railroad Official's Experience.

MR. EDWARD EDMONDS, long connected with railroad construction in Nebraska, writes: "My heart troubled and pained me for 19 years. Shortness of breath was the constant and most common symptom. Intense, excruciating pain, generally followed any severe exertion. Faintness, hunger without any appetite; fluttering that made me clutch my breast, and palpitation that often staggered me as if I would fall, were frequent attacks. Again, everything would turn black if I arose from a stooping posture quickly. Sleepless nights with their prostrating unrest were numerous and I could get no rest day or night. I consulted leading physicians and tried advertised remedies. They gave me no relief. One of Dr. Miles' circulars described my case so exactly that I took Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and I am now a well man. I hope every one troubled with heart disease will try Dr. Miles' remedies. If they will write me personally, I will gladly give them full details of my experience." EDW. EDMONDS.

FIELDS' MINSTRELS.

The Al. G. Field minstrels will be the attraction offered at the opera house to-night. This is claimed to be the greatest minstrel company traveling, embracing, as it does, seventy of the most prominent minstrel stars of the day, while the most novel and sensational American and European specialty acts have been secured for the great olio. The court of Momus, a scenic spectacle of mythological ideas, supercedes the worn out old-fashioned minstrel, first part. The stage settings are regal in their magnificence, while the court costumes that are used are historically correct. The vocal part of the entertainment is said to be superior to any ever heard in connection with a minstrel performance.

Two popular Paris young men had a "so-near-and-yet-so-far" experience the other night. They drove about sixteen miles on a "sparking" trip and when in a stone's throw of the young lady's home found that an impassable, unfordable barrier confronted them. Brushy Fork was on a boom and could not be forced, so the Paris gallants were forced to return home with an unspent pleasant evening still in their possession.

The Princess Chimay, nee Clara Ward, of Detroit, who created a sensation by eloping with a Hungarian gypsy fiddler, will go on the vaudeville stage. A Berlin theatre will pay her $6,000 a month and the Alhambra, London, will pay her $8,000 for four weeks.

Attractions at Cincinnati theatres this week: Grand, Frederick Ward; Walnut, Emily Banker in "A Divorce Cure;" Robinson's, Susie Kirwin Opera Co.; Heuck's, A Bowery Girl; Pike, Joseph Wheelock and others in vaudeville.

It is said that Sousa and De Wolf Hopper will join forces next season, Sousa introducing his band between acts, and conducting the orchestra for Hopper's opera.

Pauline Hall is to star in "An American Beauty," the work now being used by Lillian Russell.

A comic opera to be given in New York next month is called "1999."

Nat Goodwin won $1,500 instead of $800 on Fitzsimmons.

ECHOES OF THE FIGHT. Said Fitz to the curious crowd in tones joyful, clear and loud, "You can just bet I am a peach. I've licked boastful, gentleman Jim And knocked the filling out o' him—I'm the only pebble on the beach!"

Said Corbett amid the cheers: "He's robbed me of my spurs And separated me from my wits; But I can lick him, you bet, If they will just let me get Another chance to give him Fitz."
